

Foundations of Faith Community Nursing

Faith community nursing is a practice specialty that focuses on assisting members of a faith community to maintain and/or regain wholeness in body, mind and spirit. Faith community nurses practice within their own faith community either as volunteers or in paid positions. This foundational course is delivered in an online format from Pacific Lutheran University in partnership with CHI Franciscan.

The course is appropriate for both nurses and those interested in health ministry. Scholarships are available. Please email CCNL@plu.edu to determine eligibility.

Foundations of Faith Community Nursing

ONLINE COURSE

Seats Available: 6

Instructor(s): William Lonneman, DNP, RN

Dates: 3/23/2024 - 5/18/2024

Number of Sessions: 3

Contact Hours: 36.5 CEUs: 0

Days: Sa

Time: 8:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Location: fully online

Foundations of Faith Community Nursing

The American Nurses Association recognizes faith community nursing as a specialty in nursing. Foundations of Faith Community Nursing -- also known as Parish Nursing -- holds the spiritual dimension as central to its practice.

Faith Community Nursing is a specialized field that recognizes the importance of spirituality and the healing process. Nurses who complete this course are equipped to provide holistic care that only addresses physical health but also attends to the spiritual and emotional needs of individuals within their faith community and the wider community.

Experience online presentations, small group experiences, community interactive work and play, meditation, and creative workshops.

Offered 100% online, this education course is designed to help the faith community nurse learn model and promote health and healing.

Dates: March 23 - May 18, 2024: SELECT SATURDAYS ONLY, and self-study. There are self-paced assignments during this time, which students must complete on their own. There will be regular instructor check ins for questions and guidance.

Access to a computer and internet connection is required.

Email ccnl@plu.edu for information.

Self-paced learning 3/23/24-5/18/24

Required online class days:

March 23, April 20, May 18, 2024

Contact Hours 36.50

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM PST Three arranged Saturdays and self-study in-between.